

County Studies Tactics of Wild Dog Capture

How to capture wild dogs without shooting them is a problem being studied by the county pound department. "Wild" dogs are becoming a problem in some communities because they have been "dumped," deserted and forced to provide for their own sustenance. Pound master Marvin T. Thomson explains. Some of these dogs have formed into packs and reverted back to the wild life. These wild dog packs cause considerable damage to property of citizens, particularly where cattle are maintained, as in the southern and southeastern sections of the county.

Nisei Group Pledges Fealty To U. S. Here

"I pledge allegiance to the United States of America,"... these familiar words were never more solemnly or sincerely spoken than by the 70 Japanese-Americans — Nisei — who attended the Southern District Council of the Japanese American Citizens' League, held in the Legion hall at Torrance last Sunday. Delegates from as far away as San Diego and San Luis Obispo attended the meeting, which was sponsored by the Gardena Valley unit of the national organization of American-born Japanese young men and women.

Addressing a group of Torrance citizens who were invited as guests of the noon-day dinner, Ken Matsuo, vice-president of the National league, stated that the organization now had 10,000 members and it was the aim to enroll another 10,000 by next year.

"There is no doubt regarding the loyalty to the United States of the vast majority of Japanese-Americans," Matsuo said, "but like all races of which this democracy is made up, there may be a few who are not. It is the purpose of this organization to weed out these un-American principles. We realize that we are 'on the spot' because of the international situation, but we ask that you judge us by the actions of the majority and not by the few 'bad apples in the barrel'." Matsuo added.

Fred Ikeguchi, president of the Gardena Valley unit, presided at the dinner. Other officers who spoke briefly included: Fred Tayama, president of the Southern District Council, and George Inagaka, vice-chairman of the Southern district.

Mayor Tom C. McGuire gave an address of welcome, and Ed Means, field secretary of the late Congressman Lee E. Geyer, spoke on economic issues. Other guests included: Mrs. McGuire, Messrs. and Mesdames James W. Post, Grover C. Whyte, Larry Larava, and Messrs. B. C. Bux-

"NAVY TRADE TRAINING GAVE ME MY START" SAYS PRESIDENT, SPERRY CORPORATION

THOMAS A. MORGAN (pictured in insert), president of the Sperry Corporation, world's largest manufacturer of aeronautical and marine instruments, received his early technical training in the U. S. Navy, in which he enlisted as a young man. "This has proved of great value to me in later years," said ex-sailor Morgan. Pictured above are new Navy recruits receiving electrical training at one of the modern equipped Navy Trade Schools. The Navy offers training to young men in nearly 50 different trades and vocations. Opportunities for advancement, to learn skilled trades, for travel and adventure are identical whether a man enlists in the regular Navy or the Naval Reserve—and his pay, food, clothing, medical and dental care are the same.

High Notes on P.V. Symphony

By JIM HOWE

WANTED, a double-bass player for P. V. Symphony preferably from Torrance or Lomita. The orchestra ranks are about filled up but the Torrance-Lomita section should have more representation.

Gordon T. Collins of Manhattan Beach, former tympana player with P. V. orchestra, is back after an absence of a year. He replaces Lloyd Hall who is taking a course of night-school study.

A valuable new member in the First Violin section is Mrs. Ellis E. Patterson, experienced symphony player, resident of Hermosa Beach and wife of the Lieut. Governor of California.

Another skillful and experienced player joins the orchestra this week, Mrs. Kathleen Warren, cellist, of Hermosa Beach. Mrs. Warren is dental hygienist of this school district. She has played in eastern symphony orchestras.

Another addition to the strings is Lolita Mohr of Redondo Beach, who joins the first violins. Still another new member is Earl Williams of Hermosa Beach. Williams is accomplished on several instruments in the wood-woods, especially clarinet.

Woodes Rogers, first royal governor of the Bahamas, had as his chief mission the elimination of piracy from the islands.
